Fund objective

The Fund aims to achieve long term capital growth, by investing in the shares of companies established or operating in the People's Republic of China (PRC). The Fund will invest predominantly in Chinese Companies listed on exchanges in the PRC and Hong Kong and will also include other China companies listed offshore. The Fund is actively managed with reference to the MSCI China All Shares Index (USD) - Net Returns (the "Index") and seeks to outperform by 3% over the medium to long term.

Fund update

The Fund outperformed the positive benchmark return. Strong stock selection drove outperformance, particularly within the information technology and consumer discretionary sectors. Positive selection within health care was partially outweighed by negative sector allocation (overweight). The Fund's positioning strategy was a key contributor and extended its year-to-date outperformance, primarily through positive exposure to value alongside effective sector positioning and stock selection.

Any opinion expressed is that of Russell Investments, is not a statement of fact, is subject to change and does not constitute investment advice.

The value of investments and the income from them can fall as well as rise and is not guaranteed. You may not get back the amount originally invested.

Past performance does not predict future returns.

There are no assurances that the investment goals and objectives stated in this material will be met.

Potential investors in Emerging markets should be aware that investment in these markets can involve a higher degree of risk.

Please remember that all investments do not typically grow at an even rate of return and may experience negative growth. As with any type of portfolio structuring, attempting to reduce risk and increase return could, at certain times, unintentionally reduce returns.

The value of the fund's assets may be affected by uncertainties such as international political developments, changes in government policies and other developments in laws and regulations. Furthermore, the legal infrastructure, accounting, auditing and reporting standards may not provide the degree of investor protection or transparency associated with investment in major securities markets.

The base currency of the fund is denominated in USD, while its investments and any income it derives from such investments are denominated primarily in RMB. RMB is not a freely convertible currency and is subject to exchange controls and restrictions. As a result, investments in the fund are exposed to foreign exchange transaction costs and fluctuations between USD and RMB. There can be no assurance that the RMB will not be subject to devaluation or revaluation.

The fund intends to invest in China A-Shares through the RQFII quota of the Manager or via the Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect and Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect ("Stock Connect") and may be subject to specific risks, including but not limited to, custodial risk, settlement risk, regulatory risk and risks associated with the Manager's RQFII status. In addition, both RQFII and Stock Connect are relatively new and there may be uncertainty in implementation and such policy and rules are subject to change. All these may adversely impact the fund.
