Emerging Local Bond Fund

a sub-fund of PIMCO Funds: Global Investors Series plc PIMCO Global Advisors (Ireland) Limited, part of Allianz, manages this fund.

ISIN: IE00B29K0P99

Share class: Institutional USD Accumulation

Objectives and Investment Policy

Objective The fund aims to maximise the total return on your investment through primarily providing exposure to a range of fixed income securities and instruments denominated in currencies of emerging market countries, using prudent investment management principles.

Investment Policy The fund seeks to primarily gain exposure to a range of currencies and fixed income securities and instruments (which are loans that pay a fixed or variable rate of interest) issued by governments and companies from emerging markets around the world. The fund may make extensive use of derivatives (such as options, futures contracts, or swap agreements), to build this exposure. The derivatives return is linked to movements in the underlying assets. The fund is likely to concentrate its investments in Asia, Africa, the Middle East, Latin America and the developing countries of Europe.

The fund is considered to be actively managed in reference to the JPMorgan Government Bond Index-Emerging Markets Global Diversified (the "Index") by virtue of the fact that the Index is used for duration measurement, calculating the global exposure of the fund using the relative VaR methodology and for performance comparison purposes. Certain of the fund's securities may be components of and may have similar weightings to the Index. However, the Index is not used to define the portfolio composition of the fund or as a performance target and the fund may be wholly invested in securities which are not constituents of the Index.

The average portfolio duration of this fund normally varies within two years (plus or minus) of the duration of the Index. Duration measures the sensitivity of the assets to interest rate risk. The longer the duration the higher the sensitivity to changes in interest rates.

The fund may invest in "investment grade" and "non-investment grade securities". Non-investment grade securities are considered to be more risky, but typically produce a higher level of income.

The assets held by the fund may be denominated in a wide variety of currencies. The investment advisor may use foreign exchange and related derivative instruments to hedge or implement currency positions.

For full investment objectives and policy details please refer to the fund's prospectus.

Distribution Policy This share class does not pay out a distribution. Any investment income generated will be reinvested.

Dealing Day You can buy and sell shares on most working days in Dublin, exceptions to this are more fully described in the fund holiday calendar available from the Administrator.

Risk and Reward Profile

The indicator above is not a measure of the risk of capital loss, but a measure of the fund's price movement over time.

- It is based on historical data and thus may not be a reliable indication for the future.
- The indicated risk category is not guaranteed and may shift over time.
- The indicator is designed to help investors understand the uncertainties both for loss and for growth that may affect their investment. In this context, the lowest category does not mean "risk free".
- The risk indicator is based on the volatility of the fund's performance over the last 5 years. Where 5 years' performance history is not available the data is supplemented by benchmark data or simulated historical series as appropriate.
- The fund does not provide its investors with any guarantee on performance, nor on the monies invested in it.

In addition to the risk captured by the indicator, the overall fund value may be considerably affected by:

Credit and Default Risk A decline in the financial health of an issuer of a fixed income security can lead to an inability or unwillingness to repay a loan or meet a contractual obligation. This could cause the value of its bonds to fall or become worthless. Funds with high exposures to non-investment grade securities have a higher exposure to this risk.

Currency Risk Changes in exchange rates may cause the value of investments to decrease or increase.

Derivatives and Counterparty Risk The use of certain derivatives could result in the fund having a greater or more volatile exposure to the underlying assets and an increased exposure to counterparty risk. This may expose the fund to larger gains or losses associated with market movements or in relation to a trade counterparty being unable to meet its obligations.

Emerging Markets Risk Emerging markets, and especially frontier markets, generally carry greater political, legal, counterparty and operational risk. Investments in these markets may expose the fund to larger gains or losses.

High Yield Risk High yield securities are deemed to be more at risk of the issuer or guarantor of a fixed income security or derivative failing to meet its payment obligations. This may affect the performance of the fund.

Liquidity Risk Difficult market conditions could result in certain securities becoming hard to sell at a desired time and price.

Interest Rate Risk Changes in interest rates will usually result in the values of bond and other debt instruments moving in the opposite direction (e.g. a rise in interest rates likely leads to fall in bond prices).

Mortgage Related and Other Asset Backed Securities Risks Mortgage or asset backed securities are subject to similar risks as other fixed income securities, and may also be subject to prepayment risk and higher levels of credit and liquidity risk.

China InterBank Bond Market ("CIBM") The fund may be exposed to liquidity risks, settlement risks, default of counterparties and market volatility associated with CIBM. In addition, the CIBM rules are new and still subject to further clarification and/or changes, which may adversely affect the fund's capability to invest in the CIBM.
