This document provides you with key investor information about this Fund. It is not marketing material. The information is required by law to help you understand the nature and the risks of investing in this Fund. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

Matthews Asia

Asia Credit Opportunities Fund (the "Fund")

a sub-fund of Matthews Asia Funds (the "Company")

I Distribution USD (the "Class") ISIN LU1275263116

Management Company: Carne Global Fund Managers (Luxembourg) S.A. (the "Management Company")

Objective and Investment Policy

- Objective: The Fund seeks total return over the long term.
- Investment policy: The Fund seeks to achieve its investment objective by investing at least 65% of its net assets in income-producing securities, debt and debt-related instruments and derivative instruments with fixed income characteristics issued by governments, quasi-governmental entities, supra-national institutions and companies located in or with substantial ties to Asia. Investments may be denominated in any currency, and may represent any part of a company's capital structure from debt to equity or with features of both. Debt and debt-related instruments include bonds, debentures, bills, notes, certificates of deposit and other bank obligations, senior secured bank debt, convertible debt securities (including contingent convertible bonds or "CoCos"), credit-linked notes, inflation-linked instruments and/or repurchase agreements. Investments in CoCos are allowed up to 20% of the Fund's net assets. Financial derivative instruments may be used for hedging and/or investment purposes, including managing interest rate, currency and credit exposure, involving a variety of underlying instruments. The Fund may invest in debt securities of any quality. On an ancillary basis, the Fund may invest in other permitted assets on a worldwide basis. For the purpose of this policy, Asia consists of all countries and markets in Asia and includes developed, emerging, and frontier countries and markets in Asia.
- The Fund may invest (whether directly or indirectly) in China A Shares or onshore debt securities listed on the Shanghai or Shenzhen Stock Exchanges, either directly via a Qualified Foreign Institutional Investor ("QFII") license awarded to the Company, or via the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect and/or Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect programs, China Interbank Bond Market, or indirectly via investment in access products. Under normal market conditions, it is expected that the Fund will hold less than 30% of its net assets in aggregate in China A and B Shares and onshore debt securities.
- The Fund's reference benchmark is the J.P. Morgan Asia Credit Index (USD) and is indicated for performance comparison only. The Fund is actively managed and does not aim to replicate or track the benchmark. Consequently, the Investment Manager, Matthews International Capital Management, LLC, may freely select the securities in which it invests, and the Fund's portfolio composition and performance may deviate materially from the benchmark.
- Dividend policy: Substantially all of the income earned on investment is intended to be distributed periodically out of the Fund's gross income.
- Holding period: The Fund has no minimum holding period, however, the Fund has a long-term investment horizon (typically 5 years or longer). This Fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within 5 years.
- Share transactions: An investor can buy and sell shares of the Fund on any Business Day in Luxembourg.
- Investment manager: Matthews International Capital Management, LLC

Risk and Reward Profile

Interpretation of the Risk and Reward Indicator: The Risk and Reward Indicator takes into account historical data which is not a reliable indicator of the future. The risk category was calculated using related historical performance data and it may not be a reliable indicator of the Fund's future risk profile. The risk category of the Fund is neither a target nor guaranteed to remain stable over time. A risk category of 1 does not mean a risk free investment.

Why is this Fund in this category? The Fund is in risk category 4 because it invests primarily in Asian bonds and other income-producing securities and these assets have not shown sharp changes in valuation ("volatility"). However, many Asian markets are considered to be emerging markets and may experience changes in valuation. Changes in valuation are expected to result in changes in the Fund's net asset value.

Are there other particular risks you should consider? The Risk and Reward Indicator does not provide an overall risk profile of the Fund, nor does it fully capture all the risks of investing in the Fund. Risks that you should consider include: market risk, interest rate risk, currency risk, foreign exchange risk, settlement risk, valuation risk, credit risk, liquidity risk, compliance risk, political risk, legal risk, custody risk, operational risk, counterparty risk, regional and country risk, risk of investing in China A Shares or onshore debt securities, and high yield risk. Investments in less developed financial markets may expose the Fund to increased operational, legal and political risk. Derivative instruments are highly sensitive to changes in the value of the underlying asset that they are based on. Certain derivatives may result in losses greater than the amount originally invested. If a counterparty were to default, the unrealized profit on the derivative contract and its market exposure may be lost. The Fund intends to pay out all of the income earned by this Class. This may have the result that expenses of this Class may be paid out of capital. Payment of expenses out of capital amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor's original investment, and limits its potential for generating income. For more details about risk, please refer to the Fund's Prospectus under "Risk Considerations," which is available at global.matthewsasiasia.com/prospectus.

Charges

ONE-OFF CHARGES TAKEN BEFORE OR AFTER YOU INVEST

Entry Charge Up to 5.00%

Exit Charge Not applicable

This is the maximum that might be taken out of your money before it is invested/before the proceeds of your investment are paid out.

CHARGES TAKEN FROM THE FUND OVER A YEAR

Ongoing Charges 1.25%

CHARGES TAKEN FROM THE FUND UNDER CERTAIN SPECIFIC CONDITIONS

Performance Fee Not applicable

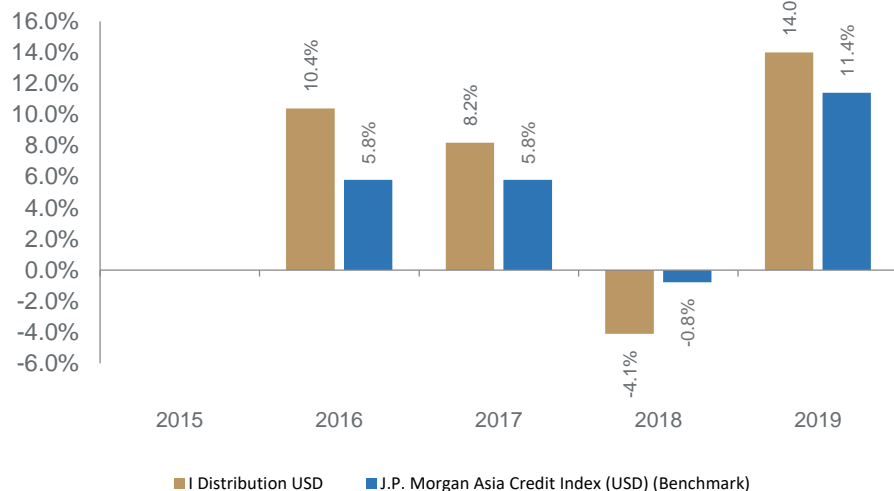

The charges you pay are used to cover the costs of running the Fund, including the costs of marketing and distributing it. These charges reduce the potential growth of your investment.

Entry/Exit Charges: The Fund may levy an Entry Charge of up to 5% on the value of your investment before it is invested in the Fund. In some cases you may pay an Entry Charge of less than 5%. Exit Charges are amounts taken out of the proceeds of your investment before they are paid out or invested in another sub-fund. All of these Charges reduce the size of your investment and your return. Actual amounts can be obtained from your financial advisor or distributor.

Ongoing Charges: The amount shown is based on the expenses for the Fund's financial year ended 31 March 2020. Ongoing Charges may vary from year to year. Ongoing Charges exclude portfolio transaction costs (including taxes and brokerage commissions) and any borrowing costs, which are payable from the assets of the Fund and may impact returns on your investment.

For more information about Charges please see the Fund's Prospectus under "Fees and Expenses," which is available at global.matthewsasiasia.com/prospectus.

Past Performance

Calculation: The bar chart shows the Fund's yearly returns against the J.P. Morgan Asia Credit Index (USD). The returns of the Fund are provided for all the years for which performance data is available for the complete calendar year since its launch on 30 September 2015. The Fund's return figures have been calculated in USD, net of the ongoing charges (but do not consider any potential Entry or Exit Charges), and with distributable income reinvested.

Interpretation of past performance: Please note that past performance is not an indicator for future performance.
