[†] The Net Annual Operating Expense Ratio may be less than the Total Operating Expense Ratio and represents the actual expenses expected to be borne by shareholders after application of: (b) a contractual cap and reimbursement on expenses through February 28, 2019; These contractual agreements may not be terminated during the relevant periods except at the Board of Trustee's discretion. Details of these agreements are in the current prospectus. Absent these reductions, the fund's return would have been lower.

Portfolio related information presented herein generally reflects the Fund's investments in derivatives, such as futures, forwards, options and swaps. For these purposes, calculations are based upon a derivative's notional value and the characteristics of its reference asset.

* Sector allocations, regional exposures, and credit quality exposures may not equal 100% as a result of the Fund's use of derivatives. The Fund may invest in derivatives (1) as a substitute for holding securities directly, (2) to facilitate the implementation of its investment strategy, (3) for hedging purposes, (4) to take a net short position with respect to certain issuers, sectors or markets, (5) to adjust the interest rate sensitivity and duration of the Fund's portfolio, or (6) to manage the Fund's asset class exposure. In the event the short positions are entered into, they may be reflected as negative weightings in sector allocations, regional allocations, and credit quality exposures.

Money Managers listed are current as of September 30, 2018. Subject to the Fund's Board approval, Russell Investment Management, LLC has the right to engage or terminate a money manager at any time and without a shareholder vote, based on an exemptive order from the Securities and Exchange Commission. Investments in the Funds are not deposits with or other liabilities of any of the money managers and are subject to investment risk, including loss of income and principal invested and possible delays in payment or redemption proceeds. The money managers do not guarantee the performance of any Fund or any particular rate of return.

While the investment styles employed by the money managers are intended to be complementary, they may not in fact be complementary. A multi-manager approach could result in more exposure to certain types of securities and higher portfolio turnover.

Investments in infrastructure-related companies have greater exposure to the potential adverse economic, regulatory, political and other changes affecting such entities. Investment in infrastructure related companies are subject to various risks including governmental regulations, high interest costs associated with capital construction programs, costs associated with compliance and changes in environmental regulation, Economic slowdown, and surplus capacity, competition from other providers of services, and other factors.

The Fund may invest in derivatives, including futures, options, forwards and swaps. Investments in derivatives may cause the Fund's losses to be greater than if it invests only in conventional securities and can cause the Fund to be more volatile. Derivatives involve risks different from, or possibly greater than, the risks associated with other investments.

Use of currency trading strategies may adversely impact a Fund's ability to meet its investment objective.

Investments that are allocated across multiple types of securities may be exposed to a variety of risks based on the asset classes, investment styles, market sectors, and size of companies preferred by the investment managers. Investors should consider how the combined risks impact their total investment portfolio and understand that different risks can lead to varying financial consequences, including loss of principal. Please see a prospectus for further details.

*RIM manages this portion of the Fund's assets to effect the Fund's investment strategies and/or to actively manage the Fund's overall exposures.

Positioning strategies are used to seek excess return and manage portfolio risks by targeting specific exposures. These strategies are used in conjunction with allocations to third-party managers to fully reflect Russell Investments' strategic and dynamic views with integrated liquidity and risk management.

 Cohen & Steers Capital Management, Inc. refers to Cohen & Steers Capital Management, Inc. (New York, NY), Cohen & Steers UK Limited (London, UK) and Cohen & Steers Asia Limited (Central Hong Kong)

‡ Non-discretionary money manager. Russell Investment Management, LLC (RIM) manages this portion of the Fund's assets based upon a model portfolio provided.
