Designation

We can record that this investment has been bought on behalf of a child. If an investment has been designated to a child under 18 it will legally be owned by the adult investor.

Joint investors

We can accept up to four joint investors – details of the first investor can be supplied on this application form and second, third and fourth investor on page 6.

Beneficial owners

We can accept an application where the person who owns and benefits from the investment (known as the 'beneficial owner') is different to the person who opens and invests into the account (for example, a parent investing for their child). Multiple beneficial owners are permitted on the one account, and their names, addresses and dates of birth must be supplied or the application will be rejected. A beneficial interest may arise as a trustee, shareholder or other individual who controls more than 25% of the property of a trust, more than 25% of the voting rights of a company (or other corporate body) or is entitled to more than 25% of the company's profits. We must check the identity and address of all investors who have a beneficial interest in the shares.

Payment

We only accept payments by direct credit to our bank accounts, which are detailed below. We can only accept payments in the currency of the share class of which you invest. Payments received in any other currency may be rejected and may also incur bank or other charges for which you will be liable (please see table below). Please ensure you quote a transaction reference when making a payment to avoid delay in settling your transaction.

Important information

Please make sure that all parties read and sign the declaration and authorisation.

Please also make sure that you read and understand the Key Investor Information Document(s) for the fund(s) you have chosen, as you will be asked to acknowledge that you have done so when completing the application form.

If you have made this investment through a broker, make sure they fill in part F.

If you have any questions, phone +44 (0)1268 445401.
