

Key Investor Information

This document provides you with key investor information about this fund. It is not marketing material. The information is required by law to help you understand the nature and the risks of investing in this fund. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

Putnam Ultra Short Duration Income Fund (the "Fund")

Class A Units IE00BD0C6196

A sub-fund of Putnam World Trust (the "Trust"), managed by Carne Global Fund Managers (Ireland) Limited (the "Manager")

Objectives and investment policy

The Fund aims to provide capital preservation and a rate of current income higher than U.S. Treasury bills by investing in a diversified portfolio composed of short duration, investment-grade money market and other fixed-income securities. The Fund is actively managed in reference to the ICE BofA U.S. Treasury Bill Index.

The Fund's investments may include obligations of the U.S. government, its agencies and instrumentalities, which are backed by the full faith and credit of the United States (e.g., U.S. Treasury bonds and Ginnie Mae mortgage-backed bonds) or by only the credit of a federal agency or government-sponsored entity (e.g., Fannie Mae or Freddie Mac mortgage-backed bonds), U.S. corporate debt obligations, taxable municipal debt securities, securitised debt instruments (such as mortgage and asset-backed securities), certificates of deposit, commercial paper (including asset-backed commercial paper), time deposits, Yankee and Eurodollar securities and other money market instruments. The Fund may also invest in U.S. dollar-denominated foreign securities of these types. The Fund is not limited to a specific geographic focus.

Under normal circumstances, the effective duration of the Fund's portfolio will generally not be greater than one year and the dollar-weighted average portfolio maturity of the Fund is not expected to exceed three and one-half years.

The Fund may use derivatives, including futures, forwards, options, swaps, and mortgage-related derivatives, for investment purposes or to hedge against risk. The Fund may also use forward foreign exchange contracts or other currency derivatives for managing and hedging the Fund's exposure to changes in currency exchange rates.

The Fund may use repurchase agreements or reverse repurchase agreements (the exchange of a security for an agreement to repurchase (or resell, if reverse) the security at a fixed future date and price) to generate additional income for the Fund or for efficient portfolio management purposes.

For Class A Units and Class M Units, distributions, if any, will be declared daily and distributed monthly out of the Fund's net income and will be reinvested in additional units of the Fund. Class A2 is an accumulating Class that does not normally pay out distributions.

Units can be bought or sold on any day that is a business day in Ireland and the U.S.

The base currency of the Fund is U.S. dollar.

Risk and reward profile

The risk category highlighted above is based on historical data measuring the average fluctuations in the value of the Fund's assets over the past five years.

The Fund's risk category is not a target or a guarantee and it may change over time; it may not be a reliable indicator of the Fund's future risk and reward profile.

These categories rate how a fund might behave and how much risk there may be to the capital you have invested. Category 1 does not indicate a risk-free investment. It indicates that the risk of losing money is small, but the potential of higher gains is limited. With a Category 7 fund, the risk of losing money is higher but there is greater potential for gain.

The securities in which the Fund invests, as outlined in the section above, may fluctuate in value, and the more they do so, the higher the risk category. The Fund's risk category reflects the amount of price volatility experienced over the past five years by the types of securities it invests in.

The Fund's risk category may not adequately reflect the following risks of investing in the Fund:

- Focused Investment Risk (focusing on a limited number of issuers, sectors, industries or geographic regions increases risk and volatility)

- Credit Risk / Counterparty Risk (fixed income (debt) securities, particularly high-yield bonds, are subject to greater levels of credit and liquidity risk, may be speculative and may decline in value due to changes in an issuer's or counterparty's deterioration or default)
- Liquidity Risk (the lack of an active market for investments may cause delay in buying/selling or force a sale below fair value)
- Management Risk (returns may be affected by investment decisions and techniques of the Fund's management)
- Derivatives Risk (derivative instruments are complex, have different characteristics than their underlying assets and are subject to additional risks, including leverage, liquidity and valuation; derivatives may result in gains or losses that are greater than the original amount invested)
- Operational Risk (risk of material losses due to technology failures, human error, policy breaches, incorrect valuation, and/or lack of safekeeping of assets)

For more information about the Fund's risks, see the "Risk Factors and Special Considerations" section in the Prospectus, which is available at www.putnam.com/ucits

Charges

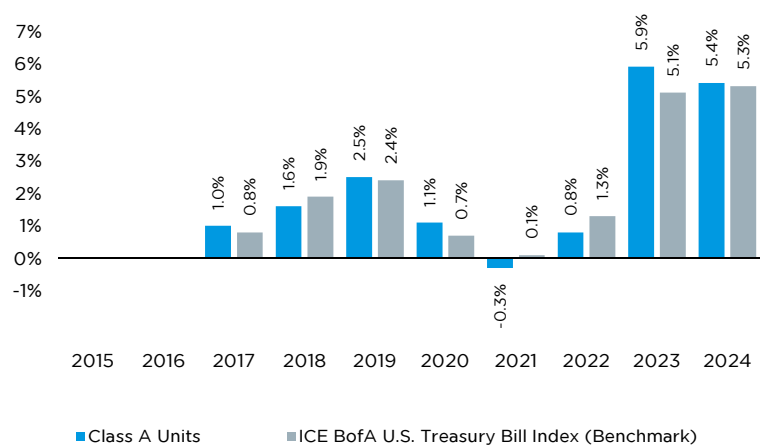

These charges are used to pay the costs of operating the Fund, including the costs of marketing and selling. Overall, they reduce the potential growth of your investment.

| One-off charges taken before or after you invest | |
|---|-------|
| Entry charge | None |
| Exit charge | None |
| This is the maximum that might be taken out of your money before it is invested or before the proceeds of your investment are paid out. | |
| Charges taken from the Fund over a year | |
| Ongoing charge | 0.60% |
| Charges taken from the Fund under certain specific conditions | |
| Performance fee | None |

- The entry/initial sales and exit charges shown are maximum figures. In some cases you might pay less. Please consult your financial advisor or the distributor for your actual charges.
- The ongoing charges figure is based on expenses for the twelve months ended December 2024. This figure may vary from year to year. It excludes portfolio transaction costs, except in the case of an entry/exit charge paid by the Fund when buying or selling units in another collective investment undertaking.
- An anti-dilution levy may be imposed where it is determined that a large purchase, sale or switching of Fund units is causing dilution of the Fund's value.

For more information about charges, please see the "Management and Trust Charges - General" section in the Prospectus, which is available at www.putnam.com/ucits

Past performance

- Performance in the past is not a reliable indicator of future results.
- These figures show by how much the Fund increased or decreased in value during each year.
- Although the Fund measures its performance against the benchmark, it is not an index tracker.
- The past performance shown does not take into account any entry or exit charges but does take into account the ongoing charge noted above.
- The Fund was launched on 21 December 2016. This Class started to issue units on 21 December 2016.
- Past performance has been calculated in U.S. dollars.
